

THE MASTER'S CHARGE - PHASE THREE

MATTHEW 10:24-33 (CONTINUED)

Introduction: Jesus' mission-charge to his disciples in Matthew chapter 10 has consisted of difficult commands and hard to understand prophecies. Jesus has promised rejection, persecution and even death. Now he has a positive word of encouragement for the twelve apostles and all who would be His disciples. Jesus reveals the fact that a disciple of His is to be absolutely identified with Himself. God is a sovereign Lord; nothing falls outside his will, nothing disrupts his plan. For this reason a disciple of Jesus need have no fear as they pursue their evangelistic work, in spite of the hatred and persecution they, and we may face along the way.
